CLIQ® Web Manager Software

Function

A web-based software program, CLIQ® Web Manager is used to manage the CLIQ® Remote system.
User-friendly and intuitive, system administrators use it to remotely manage the day-to-day functionality of the CLIQ® Remote system.

Applications

As a web-based solution, the CLIQ® Web Manager provides access to the system's database from any computer with an Internet connection and has been specifically designed to handle large, decentralized systems.

Features

- Secure login via a control key and a PIN code
- Advanced search options
- Manages and creates:
  - Access permissions
  - Audit trails — including activities from remote devices
  - Time-based authorization
  - Recurring validation
  - Reports
- Supports remote programming device management
- Enables system grouping into manageable domains
- Allows remote key programming
- Key and personnel management

Specifications

- Web browser: internet Explorer 7 and up
- Highly secured connection (SSL)
- Available in multi-language versions
- License options are per system size

MUL-T-LOCK®

www.mul-t-lock.com